

JUAN CARLOS URCIA BAREA

jbarea@princeton.edu · www.jcurciabarea.info

EDUCATION

Princeton University

Princeton, NJ

Master in Public Affairs · School of Public and International Affairs

August 2020 – May 2022

- Coursework: Financial Management; Econometrics; Quantitative Analysis; Macroeconomics; Microeconomics; International Economics; and Growth, International Finance, and Crises.
- Organizing course on Global Chip Shortage partnering with U.S. Department of Commerce.
- Activities: Julis-Rabinowitz Center for Public Policy and Finance (Associate); First Gen and Low-Income Students (Treasurer); Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (Co-Lead).
- Awarded the Karl Edwin Prickett Fellowship in Public and International Affairs.

Brown University

Providence, RI

Bachelor of Arts · History: Ancient Rome and Late Antiquity

August 2013 – May 2017

EMPLOYMENT

U.S. Department of the Treasury

Washington, DC

Graduate Intern, Office of International Financial Markets

May – August 2021

- Created a self-updating heatmap dashboard of 46 macro-financial vulnerability indicators across 24 Advanced Economies and Emerging Markets, pulling data from Haver Analytics.
- Wrote reports for the team providing research and analysis of vulnerability trends, including: sovereign-bank nexus, housing, credit and asset price growth, and sovereign dollar debt.

U.S. Senator Benjamin L. Cardin

Washington, DC

Legislative Correspondent

July 2018 – July 2020

Staff Assistant

September 2017 – June 2018

- Led research and recommendations during crises including 2018-2019 federal government shutdown and COVID-19 CARES Act unemployment insurance and state fiscal programs.
- Assisted in writing and managing 10+ bills including Government Employee Fair Treatment Act (P.L.116-1), which became law and guarantees backpay for furloughed federal workers.
- Met stakeholders and participated in interviewing and vetting of executive branch nominees.
- Researched and provided recommendations via memos for numerous bills, resolutions, oversight letters, and prepared briefer memos for VIP meetings and committee hearings.

U.S. Senate Committee on Foreign Relations

Washington, DC

Congressional Intern, Democratic Staff

July – August 2016

- Researched and analyzed developments in Southeast Asia and helped prepare for hearings.

U.S. Representative David N. Cicilline

Pawtucket, RI

Congressional Intern, Pawtucket District Office

May – July 2016

- Managed the front office, received guests, and logged constituent correspondence.

The Walt Disney Company

Burbank, CA

Summer Intern, Corporate Strategy and Business Development

June – August 2015

- Analyzed a telecommunications merger and crafted a presentation on the ad tech industry.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Software: Stata, R, Haver, Bloomberg Terminal, Excel, PowerPoint, Python, Java, and HTML

Languages: English (native), Spanish (advanced), and Japanese (beginner)

Interests: photography, painting, computers, researching history, hiking, and tennis